

100 women in hedge funds®

New York Education Committee Bios

Board Champion

Joan Werner

Ramius Capital Group, LLC

Committee Members

Jennifer Abrahamsen

Barbara Callao

Jennifer G. Croswell

Julia B. Dailey

Tanya Ghaleb-Harter

Maggie Gresio

Dana Hall

Halsey Meyer

Anna Shtromberg

Janie R. Tisdale

Dana Zwilling

Ramius Capital Group, LLC

Platinum Grove Asset Management L.P.

BTIG - Baypoint Prime Brokerage

Andor Capital Management LLC

Deutsche Bank

BlueCrest Capital Management

D.E. Shaw & Co., L.P.

Summit Rock Advisors

Natixis Capital Markets

WexTrust Capital, LLC

Galacy Inc

Joan Werner, Director of Marketing and Client Services, Ramius Capital Group, LLC

Joan Werner is Director of Marketing and Client Services for Ramius Capital Group, LLC which is an independent alternative investments firm. Prior to joining Ramius Capital, she was Director of Marketing for CSFB Volaris Advisors (formerly Volaris Advisors) which was an independent investment advisory firm specializing in volatility management.

Joan was also Director of Alternative Investments Marketing (Hedge Funds, Private Equity, Managed Futures & Exchange Funds) at Merrill Lynch Investment Managers responsible for marketing communications, research, new product development and educational programs for the Financial Advisors. She has previously held positions at Bear Stearns Asset Management and at Prudential Financial in the investment management, private placement and insurance areas.

Joan has an MBA from Columbia Business School and a BBA from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. She currently serves on the Philanthropy Committee and is a Founding Board Member for the Professional Association For Investment Communications Resources (PAICR). She has also been an Adjunct Professor in Marketing at The College of New Jersey.

Barbara Callao, Associate Director, Platinum Grove Asset Management

Barbara Callao is an Associate Director in the Investor Relations & Marketing group at Platinum Grove Asset Management, a relative value hedge fund manager based in Rye Brook, NY. Prior to joining Platinum Grove in 2006, Barbara was an analyst in the Investment Banking division of Morgan Stanley, focusing on the power and utility sector.

Barbara holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and International Relations from Brown University.

Julia B. Dailey, Principal, Chief Operating Officer, Andor Capital Management LLC

Ms. Dailey is Andor Capital Management's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing Andor's Marketing and Investor Relations, Information Technology, Trading, Trading Operations and external relationships. Previously, Ms. Dailey was Managing Director and Deputy Head of National Institutional Equity Sales at J.P. Morgan where she began her career. Ms. Dailey's previous responsibilities included managing J.P. Morgan's Western U.S. Equities business, Eastern U.S. and London institutional sales and managing Listed Equity Sales/Trading. She was a member of J.P. Morgan's Equities Management Committee. Ms. Dailey graduated with a B.A. in Economics from the College of the Holy Cross.

She is the Chair of the Andor Capital Management Foundation, Greenwich, CT, member of the Board of Directors of Part of the Solution (POTS), Bronx, NY, Trustee of the Rye Free Reading Room in Rye, NY and on the Board of Directors of The Special Operations Fund, Washington, DC. She is also involved with 100 Women in Hedge Funds, for which she works on the Education Committee. She recently completed her Board term for The Child Guidance Center of Connecticut, Stamford, CT. Julia resides in Westchester County, NY with her husband, Michael, and six children.

Tanya Ghaleb-Harter, Director, Deutsche Bank

Tanya Ghaleb-Harter is a senior member of the DB Advisors Fund of Funds team that manages several billion dollars in hedge fund portfolios for global institutions and private clients. She is assistant portfolio manager of the group's flagship products, and portfolio manager of the emerging hedge fund products. She also leads the global macro, commodity, and quantitative equity manager due diligence effort. In addition, Tanya has served as head of quantitative portfolio analysis, having developed optimization models for hedge fund strategies, and performance attribution models to evaluate profit contribution from asset allocation versus manager selection. She has written and co-authored several articles appearing in professional journals and educational publications, including: "The Case for Global Macro," DB Absolute Return Strategies (2004); "Do Hedge Funds Belong in Taxable Portfolios?" Journal of Wealth Management (2001); and "Private Equity as an Asset Class," Journal of Private Equity (2001).

Prior to her current position, Tanya worked in the Global Portfolio Management groups at Deutsche Bank and Bankers Trust, where she created optimal client investment portfolios, and developed global equity valuation and inflation forecasting models. Before that, she worked in the Research and Market Analysis Group at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Tanya holds a BA (Phi Beta Kappa) in economics and an MBA in finance from Cornell University.

Maggie Gresio, Associate, BlueCrest Capital Management

Maggie Gresio joined BlueCrest Capital Management's marketing department in 2008. Prior to BlueCrest, Maggie worked at Natixis where she was a structurer in the Structured Credit Products Group. At Natixis, Maggie was an investment analyst for the conduit and was also involved in structuring ABS transactions and Market Value CDO's. Prior to that, Maggie worked in equity research at Lehman Brothers and Merrill Lynch, where she covered beverages/tobacco and telecoms, respectively.

Maggie actively fundraises for the National Kidney Foundation mainly via triathlon races and is a nationally ranked triathlete. She received a B.A. in Political Science from New York University.

Dana Hall, Senior Vice President, D.E. Shaw & Co., L.P., Co-Founder 100 Women in Hedge Funds

Dana Hall is a senior vice president in the D. E. Shaw group's investor relations unit. Prior to joining the D. E. Shaw group in 2005, Ms. Hall was a managing director at Lighthouse Partners, L.L.C., a fund of funds management firm she co-founded in 1999. Before that, she was a senior vice president at Delaware Investments from March 1996 to November 1998. From March 1995 to March 1996, Ms. Hall was the director of product development at Zurich Investments, a quantitative fixed income insurance investment manager located in Bermuda. From 1990 to 1994, Ms. Hall was an investment management consultant and prior to that worked in institutional international investment management at both J.P. Morgan Asset Management and Julius Baer Asset Management. Ms. Hall is a co-founder of 100 Women in Hedge Funds, an organization created to advance the interests of hedge fund investors and practitioners. She is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the National Constitution Center, a member of the Financial Analysts Seminar Board of Regents for the CFA Institute, and a recipient of the National Council on Research's Women Who Make a Difference Award. Ms. Hall graduated from Smith College in 1984 with a degree in government.

Halsey Meyer, Analyst, Summit Rock Advisors

Halsey Meyer is an analyst in the Advisory practice at Summit Rock Advisors. Based in New York, Summit Rock Advisors provides financial advice and portfolio management for a limited number of families and charitable foundations with investable wealth in excess of $100 million.

Halsey holds a Bachelor of Arts in History of Art and Architecture from Harvard College.

Anna Shtromberg, Credit Trader, Natixis Capital Markets

Anna Shtromberg was a Credit Trader on the Proprietary Credit Desk for Natixis Capital Markets, globally diversified firm in offices in New York, Paris and London, for the last 4 years. Prior to that Anna worked for 3 years in a Risk Management at Natixis, responsible for analyzing the fixed income side of the capital markets. Early in her financial services career, Anna was a senior analyst at HSBC Securities in the Risk Management department working on fixed income products.

Anna is a CPA as well as a CFA charterholder and graduated with honors from Pace University with BA degree in Public Accounting.

Janie R. Tisdale, Senior Relationship Manager, WexTrust Capital

Janie Tisdale is the Senior Relationship Manager for WexTrust Capital, a globally diversified private equity and specialty finance company, headquartered in Chicago, with offices in New York, Norfolk, Atlanta, Boca Raton, Nashville, Tel Aviv, Israel, and Johannesburg, South Africa. Before joining WexTrust, Janie was a Business Development Executive at Euclid Financial Group, Inc., a hedge fund with a fixed-income arbitrage strategy.

Early in her financial services career, she worked as an Associate on the trading floor of American Express Financial Services. In the 1990s she joined the WorldWide Securities Services Division of Citibank, NA, where as a Senior Consultant, she was instrumental in the start up of an innovative new operating unit, and new program development designed to minimize risk to the company and its clients.

She has worked extensively in both domestic and international nonprofit environments, and serves on several boards.

Dana Zwillinger, Business Development Consultant, Galacy Inc

Dana Zwillinger was in charge of Investor Relations at Laurus Capital Management, which is a single strategy New York based Hedge Fund. She was responsible for all aspects of the Investor Relations department's activities including marketing and client relations. She worked at Laurus for three and a half years until May 2007. Prior to joining Laurus, Dana was a senior trader in Israel for three years. Her responsibilities included trading in international markets and providing brokerage and investment advisory services to investors and asset managers.

Dana holds an M.B.A. in Finance and Accounting and a B.A. degree in Economics and Social Science from Tel Aviv University, Israel. Dana also served as a sergeant in the Israeli Army for two years, where she managed the soldier deployment process for the army reserve forces.