

100 women in hedge funds®

Membership Committee

Chair

Ashley Jones Tagatac Tagatac & Co., LLC

Board Champion

Eve Teich Silver Point Capital

Committee Members

Angels

Christine Ritchie Goldman Sachs

Ashley Jones Tagatac, Tagatac & Co., LLC

Ms. Tagatac founded Tagatac & Co., LLC in September, 2004. Tagatac & Co., LLC provides a full range of consulting services to the hedge fund and investment management communities. Ms. Tagatac brings 18 years of Wall Street Experience to her new firm.

Prior to establishing Tagatac & Co., Ms. Tagatac was a Senior Vice President with Lehman Brothers in New York City. As a Senior Sales Manager in the Equity Finance Group (also known as Prime Brokerage), Ms. Tagatac and her team was responsible for selling clearing, financing, and start-up services to hedge funds. Her territory included the East Coast with specific concentrations in Boston, New York (and the Tri-State area), Philadelphia, Atlanta, Palm Beach and Miami. She was also an active member of the on-campus recruiting team for Lehman and was an active mentor of both men and women. Ms. Tagatac continues to mentor several individuals today.

Ms. Tagatac's spent the majority of her career at Morgan Stanley & Co. From 1988 to 2002, Ms. Tagatac held several sales positions in Global Custody, Global Derivatives, Global Pensions and Global Prime Brokerage; she rose to the position of Executive Director reporting to both the head of sales and marketing for Prime Brokerage and the head of the Global Pensions Group.

In addition to selling prime brokerage services to hedge funds, institutional investment managers and pension funds, Ms. Tagatac completed several projects for senior management as well as joining the faculty of The Advisors Education Group where she taught a portion of the course on "How to Start a Hedge Fund."

Ms. Tagatac began her career as a Personal Banker with Irving Trust in 1986. She has a BSBA from Georgetown University's School of Business and currently lives in Stowe, VT with her husband and two children.

Eve Teich, Director of Marketing and Investor Relations, Silver Point Capital

Eve R. Teich is the Director of Marketing and Investor Relations of Silver Point Capital. Eve joined Silver Point Capital in August of 2003 from Morgan Stanley where she was an Executive Director on the Capital Introductions team in Morgan Stanley Prime Brokerage. Eve joined Morgan Stanley Prime Brokerage in August 1994 as an account representative and moved to marketing and client communications in January 1996. In January 1999, Eve joined the Capital Introduction team where she spent the past four years developing relationships with the institutional hedge fund investor community. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley, Eve worked for a year at the Investment Management Institute developing a Latin American investment forum, and spent three years in London with City Forum Ltd. developing international business conferences. Eve graduated with honors from Washington University in St. Louis, with a BSBA in Finance and Marketing.

Christine Ritchie, CFA, Goldman Sachs

Christine recently started with Goldman Sachs as a Vice President in Prime Brokerage Risk. Previously, she was at Merrill Lynch for six years. Her roles at Merrill were as a Vice President in the Professional Services Trading Group concentrating on Strategic Business Initiatives and analyst positions within Hedge Fund Credit and Prime Brokerage Risk. Prior to Merrill Lynch, Christine was with PricewaterhouseCoopers in the Financial Services Consulting Group. She began her career at Arthur Andersen as a tax accountant.

Christine received her Masters and Bachelors degrees in Accounting, with a concentration in taxation, from the University of Texas at Austin. She is a CFA charterholder, a CPA, and holds her Series 7 and 63 licenses.