

100 women in hedge funds®

Charter Angel Bio

Alexandra Poe, Senior Vice President, Assistant General Counsel, U.S. Trust

Alexandra (Sandra) Poe joined U.S. Trust in May 2004, to serve as chief legal officer for the Excelsior Mutual Funds and U.S. Trust's alternative investments funds. Prior to joining U.S. Trust she worked for 18 years providing and supervising comprehensive legal services for global money managers and program sponsors in the managed account, hedge fund, mutual fund and institutional advisory businesses, and advising clients in all phases of product development, onshore and offshore fund creation, global distribution, marketing and sales, fund governance, portfolio investment, and program management.

A graduate of New York University Law School and Cornell University, Sandra spent several years in private practice in prominent New York investment management practices, including five years at Strock & Strock & Lavan. Sandra came to U.S. Trust from Prudential Investments, where she was Chief Legal Officer for Managed Accounts and Alternative Investment Strategies. Sandra previously served at Schroders, from 1996–2001, as Senior Vice President and General Counsel, US Investment Management and Global Hedge Funds and President of the Schroder Mutual Funds, and at Citibank Global Asset Management, from 1989-1994, as Vice President and Legal Counsel for the Citibank Landmark Funds.

Sandra is a member of the bar of the State of New York and occasionally speaks at conferences on investment management law. She is proud to serve currently as a co-chair of the 100 Women in Hedge Funds Philanthropy Committee; she also values her prior experience as a Director and Executive Director of Artists to End Hunger, Inc., producer of the International Art Show for the End of World Hunger exhibited in major museums and arts venues in twelve countries from 1987-1991.