

100 women in hedge funds®

London Angel Bio

Amanda Pullinger, Pullinger Management LLC

Amanda Pullinger has been Executive Director of 100 Women in Hedge Funds since November, 2006.

Previously she was a partner at Aquamarine Capital Management, LLC for six years, managing the operations of two private investment vehicles.

Amanda has worked in a number of diverse industries, conducting business and strategic marketing analysis. She initially worked in the UK for Exel plc's environmental division, conducting acquisition analysis in the UK and Europe, and was subsequently transferred to the US to conduct similar analysis for a US subsidiary company. Just prior to joining Aquamarine Capital Management, LLC she was responsible for strategic marketing development within Unisys Corporation's enterprise server business, and at LivePerson, Inc., an Internet software company.

Amanda is on the Board of Directors of the Oxford Alumni Association of New York, the NYU Cancer Institute, and Girls' Prep, an all-girls elementary charter school located on the Lower East Side.

Amanda graduated from Oxford University, England in 1987 with an Honours Degree in Modern History. She earned an MBA from La Salle University, Philadelphia, in 1998, and received the Academic Award for MBA student of the year as well as the Beta Gamma Sigma designation. In 2006, she completed courses at NYU in Certified Financial Planning.