

100 women in hedge funds™

Charter Angel Bio

Colleen Baldwin, former Chief Executive Officer, Ivy Asset Management Corp.

Colleen Baldwin is formerly the Chief Operating Officer of Ivy Asset Management Corp., a $14bn Hedge Fund of Funds group based in New York. In this role, Colleen worked with the founders of the firm and was responsible for all business operations development and management, including Legal/Compliance, Technology, Fund Accounting and Finance, Human Resources and Administration. Colleen also had overall responsibility for Ivy's Global Product Development and Structure Products group on a global basis. During her tenure, Ivy grew from $6bn in assets under management, to over $14bn in assets in 2004.

Prior to her tenure at Ivy, Colleen was Senior Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer of AIG Global Investment Group, where she managed Global Marketing, Sales and Client Services, as well as all business infrastructure groups worldwide. During her tenure, AIG Global Investment Group grew from $65bn in assets under management, to over $200bn in assets. Prior to AIGGIG, Colleen spent a brief period of time with Bankers Trust Global Investment Management Division, where she was recruited to AIGGIG. Colleen spent eight years at JPMorgan in various management positions within Corporate Finance, Derivatives support, Strategic planning and Technology. Prior to her tenure at JPMorgan, Colleen worked at Mobil Oil Corp. in their Corporate Strategic Planning group, and she began her career in 1981 at AT&T Communications.

Colleen graduated from Fordham University in 1981 with a B.S. degree in Public Accounting and Quantitative Research. She received an MBA from Pace University in 1985 in Computer Science and Finance.