Emily Liu, Equity Analyst, Arete Research

Emily Liu is an equity analyst at Arete Research. Her current focus is renewable energy with a global remit. She has a combined 12 years of experience in equity research, corporate finance and strategic consulting, with sector exposure to FIGs and telecoms. She does not "like" or "dislike" any stocks. She believes in the power of solid analysis based on facts of the present tense, rather than opinions on quarterly results.

Emily holds a B.A. in English Literature from National Taiwan University and an MBA from SAID Business School, University of Oxford. She also holds Corporate Finance Qualification awarded by the ICAEW in the U.K. She is fluent in English and Mandarin and has basic skills in Japanese and Russian.
