

100 women in hedge funds™

Charter Angel Bio

Tracy McHale Stuart, CFA, Chief Executive Officer, Dubin & Swieca Capital Management

Tracy McHale Stuart, CFA, Chief Executive Officer of Dubin & Swieca Capital Management is responsible for management of the firm's multi-manager hedge fund business. Prior to joining Dubin & Swieca, Tracy spent over three years as Managing Director and Head of the Global Multi-Manager Strategies group at Goldman Sachs Asset Management where she created and managed an $11 billion external manager-of-managers business. Previously, Tracy spent almost five years at Barra/Rogerscasey Strategic Consulting Group ("BSCG") as Managing Director with responsibility for launching and managing the West Coast consulting team. During this time, Tracy advised U.S. and non-U.S. investment organizations on strategic planning initiatives, with a focus on management, organizational structure, marketing, and investment processes. Prior to BSCG, Tracy spent five years at Wilshire Associates, Inc. After completing her initial responsibilities as an Associate Pension Consultant, Tracy was a Senior Associate responsible for international consulting and research. Tracy began her career as a financial analyst at SEI Corporation.

Tracy graduated from the University of California with a B.A. in Economics. She received her M.I.M. from the American Graduate School of International Management (Thunderbird) and was awarded the CFA charter in 1992.